

Opening of nominations for Pravasi Bharatiya Samman Award 2025

Government of India is inviting nominations for the Pravasi Bharatiya Samman Award (PBSA) 2025. PBSA is the highest honour recognizing the contribution and achievements of Indian diaspora and is conferred by the President of India during the valedictory session of the Pravasi Bhartiya Diwas (PBD) Convention held biennially. The next PBD Convention will be held in January 2025.

PBSA is awarded to a Non-Resident Indian (NRI), Person of Indian Origin (PIO), or an Organization established and run by a PIO/NRI who has made significant contribution either overseas or in India, in one of the following fields:

For Achievements Abroad

- q) Better understanding of India;
- r) Support to India's causes and concerns in a tangible way;
- s) Building closer links between India, the overseas Indian community and their country of residence;
- t) Social and humanitarian causes India or abroad;
- u) Welfare of the local Indian community;
- v) Philanthropic and charitable work;
- w) Eminence in one's field or outstanding work, which has enhanced India's prestige in the country of residence; or
- x) Eminence in skills which has enhanced India's prestige in that country (for nonprofessional workers).

For achievements within India

- e) Philanthropic investments and charitable work in India;
- f) For contribution made towards India's development

Diaspora members and organizations also have the opportunity for self-nomination. Those interested in self-nominating can submit their completed nomination forms directly via email to pbsaward@mea.gov.in. This announcement is specifically directed to the Indian Diaspora in Suriname, Barbados, Saint Lucia, and Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.

The duly filled nomination form (attached herewith) along with necessary enclosures should be submitted before February 20, 2024, to Mr. Prem Selwal, Second Secretary, at com.paramaribo@mea.gov.in.
